CELEBRATE ARBOR DAY AT FRANKLIN PARK CONSERVATORY

Columbus, OH—Franklin Park Conservatory and Ahlum & Arbor are teaming up to celebrate the 3rd Annual, Arbor Day event on Saturday, April 28 from 10am-5pm at Franklin Park Conservatory.

Trees are vital to the health and welfare of humans and Arbor Day was created to encourage individuals to plant and care for trees. Franklin Park Conservatory and Ahlum & Arbor have planned a fun-filled and educational event that will strengthen the public's knowledge about trees and their importance in our ecosystem.

Activities include:

- Tree Climbing & Equipment Demonstrations
- Tree and Root Healthcare
- All About Trees and Seed Dispersal
- Central Ohio Woodturners Demonstrations
- Tree Cookie Necklace Craft

Those attending the Arbor Day celebration will receive a free native tree sapling (while supplies last), have the opportunity to enter a drawing to win Franklin Park Conservatory tickets, a Conservatory class, or a Conservatory membership. Food trucks will be available for food and beverages, participating food trucks include, Pitabilities, Tortilla Street Food, and Too Good Eats.

For more information on all the Conservatory offers, please visit fpconservatory.org or follow the Conservatory on Facebook, Twitter or Instagram.
