CELEBRATE ARBOR DAY FESTIVAL AT FRANKLIN PARK CONSERVATORY WITH AHLUM & ARBOR

Columbus, OH—Celebrate trees at the Arbor Day Festival at Franklin Park Conservatory and Botanical Gardens presented by Ahlum & Arbor Tree Preservation on Saturday, April 29 from 10am to 4pm.

Connecting with nature is beneficial for people of all ages. Being in nature and around trees provides a wide range of health benefits, from lowering stress to boosting the immune system. To learn more about trees while having fun in the process, Ahlum & Arbor and Franklin Park Conservatory have planned an event that will strengthen the public's knowledge about trees and their importance in our ecosystem.

Activities include:

- Kids Tree Climbing & Equipment Demonstrations
- Tree and Root Healthcare
- All About Trees and Seed Dispersal
- Tree Identification Hike led by Arborists
- Central Ohio Woodturners Demonstrations
- Tree Cookie Necklace Craft

In addition to the tree related activities, Ahlum & Arbor will display their specialized vehicles to offer children a 'Touch-a-Truck' experience.

Those attending the Arbor Day celebration will receive a free native tree sapling (while supplies last). Food trucks will be available throughout the event with food and beverages. The event is weather dependent so please check the Conservatory's website and social media channels for updates.

For more information on the Conservatory, please visit fpconservatory.org or follow the Conservatory on Facebook, Twitter or Instagram.
